BEGINNING IN THE FALL

Students who intend to enter business after leaving Columbia University will have a chance to prepare themselves more fully than in the past. The university will offer a course of study this fall that will equip students for active commercial life.

In the first two years of the business courses few changes in the business curriculum will be made. The student will follow the usual courses in English, mathematics, science, philosophy, mod-mathematics, science, p ern languages, politics and economics, but in the last two years there will be business training and the final year will be devoted almost entirely to accounting and finance, organization of business, Ky., and Miss A. GATTI-CASAZZA HAS ENGAGED NEW STARS

Hopes to Get Leon Bakst to Join Metropolitan Ballet Company.

STRIFE OVER WAR PLAY

Word received yesterday by cable from Giulio Gatti-Casazza, general manager of the Metropolitan Opera Company, who is now in Italy perfecting arrangements for the coming New York opera season, tells of assembling the next season stars who will appear here. Although names have not yet been made public, it is understood that Mr. Gatti-Casazza has succeeded in engaging several new singers who were not on the list announced at the close of the season last year.

Mr. Gatti-Casazza is at present in Lausanne, Switzerland, superintending rehearsals of the Serge de Diaghilew Russian Ballet and making arrangements for the transportation of the troupe to America, where it will have a four weeks season at the Metropolitan Opera House before starting on a tour of the United States. Among other things the Metropolitan impresario is trying to induce Leon Bakst to come to this country with the ballet. The noted scene painter and stage director is responsible for the scenery of the ballet. The Metropolitan Opera Company directors and others have put up a guarantee fund of $500,000 to operate the organization here and a company called the tor in the United States," says a de-Metropolitan Ballet Company with a nominal capital of $50,000 has been formed for this purpose.

Nearly a dozen stars of the company are now in Europe, some in Italy and others in Switzerland, Holland and Denmark. Among these are Mme. Hempel, Jacques Urius, Arturo Toscanini and Arthur Bodansky, the new conductor canonical process provided for and who is to replace Alfred Heftz.

"It is the impression here (Rome) that a like decision of the Consistorial Congregation in regard to a similar question respecting priests in England and Scotland and in Australia will soon be given.

"The Consistorial Congregation thus passes on the Baltimore decree and up-holds it in full. As at present consti-tuted in every diocese there are certain parishes to which rectors are appointed as 'irremovable.' A concursus precedes the choice of such a rector and rectors of other churches are allowed to apply for the post if they desire. Removable rectors are appointed by the Bishop directly as the vacancies occur. The difference between the two is this: while both may be removed by the Bishop, the 'irremovable' may be re-moved only 'for cause' while the 're-
